

BANGOR DAILY WHIG AND CHIEF.

BY BOUTELLE & BURR. (SINGLE COPY THREE CENTS.)

BANGOR, ME., FRIDAY MORNING, MAY 22, 1891.

VOL. LVIII--NUMBER 121.

THE TELEGRAPH.

(FOR LATEST DISPATCHES SEE THIRD PAGE.)

RESPECTING THE ITALIA OMICIDE IN BOSTON.

WASHINGTON, May 21. The Paris despatch, stating that the Italo is to be peaceably surrendered to the United States by the insurgents upon their arrival in Cuba, was read to the Italian of the Navy and State Departments to-day but one and all declined to discuss the matter publicly.
Nevertheless it can be stated positively that there have been no negotiations as reported between the insurgents agents in France or elsewhere and this Government respecting the Italo.

SECRETARY BLAINE May Soon Come to Maine.

NEW YORK, May 21. Secretary Blaine rested comfortably last night and this morning was up at 6 a.m. If the weather permits a late or two he will be taken out for a drive and if found strong enough will be taken at once to Maine.

FREEDOM OF THE PRESS

AN ATTACK BY FLORIDA HOUSE.
TALLAHASSEE, Fla., May 21. The House yesterday passed w/out opposition a resolution against the freedom of the press of the state.

The striking feature of the resolution is that any member of the Legislature has only to charge that he will be prosecuted by any newspaper editor or representative of that corporation for obstructing railway
trains in New Hampshire.

Practical tests of its efficacy or of the disposition of the House to enforce the resolution may be expected almost any time.

JOHN SPARKE'S

IN THE CASE OF A POSTMISTRESS.
BOSTON, May 21. The jury in the case of Henrietta E. Cuttling reported a disagreement in the United States District Court. Mrs. Cuttling was postmistress of Attleboro, and was indicted for allowing return postage to accrue to the government. It is understood that the jury will return to-day.

HOUSE FLOATED OFF ON THE ROOT TROUGH INTO WATER— A GLORIOUS SIGHT.

WILMINGTON, N. H., May 21. Tuesday a cloudburst over 4 hours belonging to Joseph Sherman, in Coonamie county Sherman, his wife and six children climbed upon the roof of their dwelling which floated away in the torrent. The house carried, throwing all into the water. Three of the children were drowned.

VIOLATED THE INJUNCTION

A Railroad Case in New Hampshire.
CONCORD, N. H., May 21. Counsel for the Northern railroads made affidavits to the effect that the Boston & Maine, the Wessex and of the Concord and Montreal railroads have violated the injunction here before granted by Judge Blodgett, of the Supreme Court, restraining them from beginning the extension of their lines between Manchester and North Woods from North Woods to Henniker in that, in constructing said extension they crossed the highway in Henniker in violation of the injunction.

A motion will be made for an additional injunction restraining either corporation from further prosecuting work upon the extension until the determination of the suit. The hearing upon the matter will be held before Judge Blodgett in this city Saturday forenoon.

CHARLES MAIS

OF MISappropriation of Funds.
NEW YORK, May 21. The Herald says it is alleged that the assignment of the insurance on the life of Charles E. Mais, of Boston, & Martin is due to the misappropriation by certain members of the firm of funds placed in their hands for payment to various corporations and to other irregularities in the management.

A member of the firm says there is nothing irregular in the assignment.

THE SAME STORM

DESTRUCTION IN MISSOURI TOWNS.
ST. LOUIS, Mo., May 21. A special from Morely, Mo., says that a most destructive wind, rain and hail storm passed over the place, completely demolishing crops of every description. The wind blew a tornado and rain fell in such quantities as to completely inundate the fields. During the day there was little rain, but at night the destruction was appalling. It is believed that the damage in this vicinity will reach $300, 000. Fortunately no lives were lost. All telegraph wires are down.

THE CZECHIAN ITALIA

A Report by the Insurgents.

PARIS, May 21. Orlinov reports to the city who represent the congressional or insurgent party declare to-day that an arrangement has been made between the congressional party and the United States authorities by which the insurgents' names will be given by the United States authorities to the United States, and any other vessel of the American navy.

For the terms of this arrangement the fugitive crew will be handed over by the Chilian insurgents to the United States authorities, and a settlement of the question as to whether the Italo has violated the neutrality laws.

This action, it is added, will be taken without prejudice to the congressional or insurgent party.

The Italo has brought its crew to the United States, and the crew will be handed over to the United States authorities.

FOUND GUILTY

OF Firing Shot to Kill Insurance
Agent. NEW YORK, May 21. Rev.
George A. Andrews, of Essex, who has been on trial in the superior court here charged with setting his store on fire to get the insurance, has been found guilty.

ENDUE GALANTY.

A "white cap" Notice Served.
NORWALK, Conn., May 21. James Hoolahan, employed in a box factory at South Norwalk, has received a "white cap" request to leave town before Monday night or take the consequences. Endue galanty is the alleged cause of the notice.

FOUND ON RECORD.

Members of Salvation Army Indicted.
TARFINTON, N. H., May 21. The grand jury has indicted members of the Salvation Army for breaking and entering by making loud noises on drums and tambourines, and with bolsterous shouting.

This is the first case in the United States where the army has been presented by a jury.

ON SUSPICION

Arrest of Suspected Murderer.
BOSTON, May 21. John C. Hayes, a stock and leading member of the New-England Firemen's Union, has been arrested on suspicion of having murdered the boy whose body was found in the water boy floating in the dock here Tuesday morning.

DOMAGE BILL

Refused by New Legislature.
BOSTON, May 21. The House to-day refused the damage bill, relating to penalty for failure to ring in a file of personal property to assessors, to the next Legislature.

The House this morning passed a resolve referring to the impasse transit commission the state railway franchises bill, with instructions to report to the Legislature
next April.

THE 1000 AMERICAN

OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.
BOSTON, May 21. The 1000
general assembly of the Presbytery of Boston opened yesterday. There were
with accommodations in Boston.

THE 1000 AMERICAN

OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.
BOSTON, May 21. The 1000
general assembly of the Presbytery of Boston opened yesterday. There were
with accommodations in Boston.

THE TARRYTOWN DISASTER.

Funeral Services of the Italian
Victims of the Disaster.

Many Evidence of Grief Manifested by Their Friends.

TARRTOWN, N. Y., May 21. The Italians killed in the terrible explosion on Tuesday were buried to-day. The services were at Rev. Peter's church, which was crowded, principally by friends.

As Father Egan presided the funeral service he was frequently interrupted by the wails of the mourners.

After the services were over the remains of the dead italiano were conveyed to the cemetery where they were buried in the public grave division.

WANTED TO RUN THE TRAIN

A MAN TOOK TOO MUCH IN BOSTON

NASHUA, N. H., May 21. Lawrence F.
McGinnis, 21, was this morning held in $500 bonds for his appearance in the Supreme Court.

Malta left Boston on the Boston and Maine railroad at 3 o'clock yesterday for putting up the brakes, pulling the bell cord and otherwise obstructing the progress of the train. He pleaded guilty to being intoxicated.

He claimed to be a brakeman on the Old Central and Indemnity to Boston, and the penalty for obstructing railway
trains in New Hampshire.

OLAFSEN, REPHLIS

TO THE COMPILATION OF A Bookbinders

LOWELL, May 21. Orlonine has replied to the bookbinders of Lowell who made a complaint against the tax of 25 cents on the net value of books, which, the writer said, would exclude valuable old volumes which had been rebound in England for exhibition at the World's Fair in Chicago.

Mr. Gladstone says "I sympathize with you in your exclusion from the United States by a regulation which is not in accordance with the principles of protection established in England."

"As a rule you will find that the system of protection adopted by the United States
is not in accordance with the principles of protection adopted by the other markets

of the world."

Owing to a lack of water the pulp mill had to shut down for a few hours yesterday until connection could be made with Sargent's mill pond and the boilers filled from there, after which work proceeded as usual.

Sixteen car loads of steel rails were distributed along the line of the Buckport branch yesterday. The Maine Central are always striving to improve their tracks and as fast as possible the old iron rails give place to those of steel.

Mr. Richardson, southerland while driving a horse up Main street met an electric car yesterday near Church street and was thrown to the ground, but escaped injury. The horse managed to tip the carriage over but was prevented from running away.

Mr. Arthur, a prominent and much liked merchant of Holden, died at that place Wednesday morning, aged 45 years. Mr. Arthur had been a soldier, a sailor, a soldier, a farmer, a citizen, a man of high character and a man of great personal worth.

The occasion is the laying of the corner stone of the Masonic Home. Each Mason in the district is represented and it is estimated that over twenty-five thousand strangers will be present.

The organization formed at the post office on yesterday's noon train lives in the city.

Mr. Arthur, a carpenter, worked in the city, but for the past two years has
lived in Bath, has taken a position as
pattern maker with the Bangor Foundry and
Machine Company and arrived here with
his family on yesterday's noon train.

He has a large circle of friends who
will be glad they have come back.

Arthur Little, a carpenter, worked in the
city, but for the past two years has
lived in Bath, has taken a position as
pattern maker with the Bangor Foundry and
Machine Company and arrived here with
his family on yesterday's noon train.

He has a large circle of friends who
will be glad they have come back.

Mr. Arthur, a carpenter, worked in the
city, but for the past two years has
lived in Bath, has taken a position as
pattern maker with the Bangor Foundry and
Machine Company and arrived here with
his family on yesterday's noon train.

He has a large circle of friends who
will be glad they have come back.

Mr. Arthur, a carpenter, worked in the
city, but for the past two years has
lived in Bath, has taken a position as
pattern maker with the Bangor Foundry and
Machine Company and arrived here with
his family on yesterday's noon train.

He has a large circle of friends who
will be glad they have come back.

Mr. Arthur, a carpenter, worked in the
city, but for the past two years has
lived in Bath, has taken a position as
pattern maker with the Bangor Foundry and
Machine Company and arrived here with
his family on yesterday's noon train.

He has a large circle of friends who
will be glad they have come back.

Mr. Arthur, a carpenter, worked in the
city, but for the past two years has
lived in Bath, has taken a position as
pattern maker with the Bangor Foundry and
Machine Company and arrived here with
his family on yesterday's noon train.

He has a large circle of friends who
will be glad they have come back.

Mr. Arthur, a carpenter, worked in the
city, but for the past two years has
lived in Bath, has taken a position as
pattern maker with the Bangor Foundry and
Machine Company and arrived here with
his family on yesterday's noon train.

He has a large circle of friends who
will be glad they have come back.

Mr. Arthur, a carpenter, worked in the
city, but for the past two years has
lived in Bath, has taken a position as
pattern maker with the Bangor Foundry and
Machine Company and arrived here with
his family on yesterday's noon train.

He has a large circle of friends who
will be glad they have come back.

Mr. Arthur, a carpenter, worked in the
city, but for the past two years has
lived in Bath, has taken a position as
pattern maker with the Bangor Foundry and
Machine Company and arrived here with
his family on yesterday's noon train.

He has a large circle of friends who
will be glad they have come back.

Mr. Arthur, a carpenter, worked in the
city, but for the past two years has
lived in Bath, has taken a position as
pattern maker with the Bangor Foundry and
Machine Company and arrived here with
his family on yesterday's noon train.

He has a large circle of friends who
will be glad they have come back.

Mr. Arthur, a carpenter, worked in the
city, but for the past two years has
lived in Bath, has taken a position as
pattern maker with the Bangor Foundry and
Machine Company and arrived here with
his family on yesterday's noon train.

He has a large circle of friends who
will be glad they have come back.

Mr. Arthur, a carpenter, worked in the
city, but for the past two years has
lived in Bath, has taken a position as
pattern maker with the Bangor Foundry and
Machine Company and arrived here with
his family on yesterday's noon train.

He has a large circle of friends who
will be glad they have come back.

Mr. Arthur, a carpenter, worked in the
city, but for the past two years has
lived in Bath, has taken a position as
pattern maker with the Bangor Foundry and
Machine Company and arrived here with
his family on yesterday's noon train.

He has a large circle of friends who
will be glad they have come back.

Mr. Arthur, a carpenter, worked in the
city, but for the past two years has
lived in Bath, has taken a position as
pattern maker with the Bangor Foundry and
Machine Company and arrived here with
his family on yesterday's noon train.

He has a large circle of friends who
will be glad they have come back.

Mr. Arthur, a carpenter, worked in the
city, but for the past two years has
lived in Bath, has taken a position as
pattern maker with the Bangor Foundry and
Machine Company and arrived here with
his family on yesterday's noon train.

He has a large circle of friends who
will be glad they have come back.

Mr. Arthur, a carpenter, worked in the
city, but for the past two years has
lived in Bath, has taken a position as
pattern maker with the Bangor Foundry and
Machine Company and arrived here with
his family on yesterday's noon train.

He has a large circle of friends who
will be glad they have come back.

Mr. Arthur, a carpenter, worked in the
city, but for the past two years has
lived in Bath, has taken a position as
pattern maker with the Bangor Foundry and
Machine Company and arrived here with
his family on yesterday's noon train.

He has a large circle of friends who
will be glad they have come back.

The Great Coke Region Struggle
May Soon be Over.

FRIDAY, MAY 22, 1891.

FOR ADDITIONAL DESPATCHES SEE FIRST PAGE

34 ELEGANT

MAINE NEWS.

PERCIVAL ARRAIGNED.

Bound over to appear before the United States Court. May 21. Ex Cash or Percival was arraigned at his house before a United States Commissioner this morning and bound over in the sum of $60,000 to appear before the United States Court.

SPONTANEOUS COMBUSTION.

A fire in a Portland store. Portland, May 21. A fire in Burgess, Jones &amp; Co's paint store on Commercial street early this morning caught from spontaneous combustion. The stock was badly damaged by fire and water. This estimated loss is $20,000, insured for $15,000. The building was owned by W. W. Thompson and was damaged $2,000; insured $1,000.

SELF-CONFESSING BURGLAR.

Young man held for trial. Portland, May 21. City Marshal Faribault this afternoon arrested Leon Hutchins on suspicion of burglarizing and McMenamy &amp; Head's hardware store. He denied any knowledge of the crime. He was arraigned before Judge Cram to-night and pleaded guilty. He was bound over in $1,000 bonds to the September term of the Superior Court. He could not get bail.

Hutchins is about twenty-one years old. He recently finished a two years sentence in state prison for burglarizing J. B. Miller's hardware store at Vaco.

The stolen goods have not yet been recovered.

THE NATIONAL GAME.

National League.

At Chicago.

1 0 1 3 0 1 0 1 0 0 0 3 - 10

Philadelphia, 4 0 1 0 1 0 1 0 0 0 0 - 7

Base hits—Chicago, 14; Philadelphia, 14.

Errors—Chicago, 7; Philadelphia, 3.

Batteries—Gumber &amp; Kirtledge, 3.

Errors—Gleason, 2.

At Cleveland.

2 0 2 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 - 8

Boston, 0 0 0 2 1 3 0 X - 5

Base hits—Cleveland, 4; Boston, 2.

Errors—Vian and Zimmer; Clarkson and Bennett.

At Cincinnati.

1 1 0 0 2 0 0 2 0 - 7

New York, 1 1 0 0 1 0 1 0 2 - 4

Base hits—Cincinnati, 6; New York, 2.

Errors—Chambliss, 3; New York, 2.

Batteries—Sharratt and Arthur Clark; Radbourne and Bob Clark.

At Pittsburg.

2 0 4 0 0 0 0 1 0 - 7

Brooklyn, 2 0 0 0 0 1 0 0 - 6

Base hits—Pittsburg, 14; Brooklyn, 10.

Errors—Pittsburg, 1; Brooklyn, 1.

Batteries—King and Berger; Cartner and Winslow.

American Association.

At Washington.

0 3 3 0 0 0 0 0 0 - 6

Base hits—Washington, 4; Boston, 1.

Errors—Louisville, 1; Washington, 10.

Batteries—Doran and Ryan; Quisenberry and Snyder.

At Philadelphia.

0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 - 3

Athletics, 1 0 3 0 0 1 0 1 - 6

Base hits—Cincinnati, 4; Athletics, 6.

Errors—Cincinnati, 4; Athletics, 6.

Batteries—Cram and Hurley; Chamberlain and Mulligan.

At Baltimore.

1 2 0 0 0 2 2 2 x - 9

Columbus, 2 0 0 1 0 0 0 - 5

Base hits—Baltimore, 11; Columbus, 7.

Errors—McMahon and Robinson; Eastright and O'Connor.

At Boston.

0 0 1 0 1 1 1 x - 5

St. Louis, 0 2 0 0 0 0 0 - 5

Base hits—St. Louis, 8; Boston, 8.

Errors—Navy and Doyle; Daley and Murphy.

THE LEAGUE STANDING.

Last.

Wen.

Chicago, 1 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 - 8

Boston, 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 - 8

Base hits—Boston, 13; Chicago, 13.

Errors—Bowles, 4; Manchester, 5.

Batteries—Evans and Broughton; Dunnigan and Nichols.

At Lowell.

0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 - 8

Base hits—Lowell, 13; Manchester, 13.

Errors—Evans, 5; Manchester, 5.

Batteries—Evans and Broughton; Dunnigan and Nichols.

At Lynn.

0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 - 8

Base hits—Lynn, 12; Salem, 8.

Errors—Lynn, 5; Batteries—Brown and Dillon; Kelly and Burrell.

At Worcester.

0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 - 8

Base hits—Worcester, 17; Portland, 10.

Errors—Worcester, 4; Portland, 10.

Batteries—Fen and Hayes; Burn and Shultz.

FROM WASHINGTON.

News About the Capitol.

Extensive Lands Opened.

WASHINGTON, May 21. The President to-day issued an executive order to implement under the homestead law about one million acres of land in Fort Berthold Indian reservation in the northern part of North Dakota.

There is no indication on the part of the Republicans to give up the fight and they will remain in session until one of the Democratic members return or is captured by the sheriff, who is a pursuit.

HUNDREDS POISONED.

By eating smoked sausages.

Portland, May 21. Henry Brose, of Etowah and Thomas O'Rourke of this city died yesterday from the effects of eating smoked sausages that had poison more or less pernicious than 500 people in this city and vicinity.

The two men died in terrible agony and other cases have become so serious that the authorities have taken hold of the matter and a rigid examination will be made.

MADE BISHING NOISE.

Motor Passes Over Town.

PORTLAND, May 21. A motor passed over the rail road right and was blasting noise in its flight and when passing over from over the hills burst in myriad of blasting particles.

MAN KILLED.

By being struck by an engine.

AUGUSTA, May 21. George H. Winslow, president of the Boston &amp; Maine, was struck by a shifting engine on the Boston &amp; Maine railroad here to-day and instantly killed.

IMPORTANT CASE.

Reformed Presbyterian Church.

Portland, May 21. The synod of the Reformed Presbyterian church to be held in this city next Wednesday will be one of the most important meetings in its history. It is reported that 20 preachers are to be tried for following heresies.

BUSINESS TROUBLES.

Montreal Concern Assigned.

MONTREAL, May 21. Cress, Scott &amp; Co., shirt and collar manufacturers, have called a meeting of their stockholders. Their liabilities are $20,000, $15,000 included.

THOUSANDS LOST.

To Address at Germania in Utica.

NEW YORK, May 21. About 3000 people visited the site of the Masonic Hall, the corner of which was demolished to-day. The building is already down from its foundations. To-night at the City Opera House about 3000 people listened to addresses by the Mayor, Hon. Alexander J. Gordon, Hon. W. H. Vrooman, and Hon. George M. Lawrence, and Hon. Chasney M. Dewey.

MAN NOT BURIED.

With a lead in it.

STRIKERS WEAKENING.

The Great Coke Region Struggle
May Soon be Over.

FRIDAY, MAY 22, 1891.

FOR ADDITIONAL DESPATCHES SEE FIRST PAGE

CONDITION OF THE TREASURY.

President Watching the Financial Condition.A Small Riot Caused by a Raid on a House.

SCOTTDALE, Pa., May 21. Every thing today points to an arming of the great coke strike. The strikers are weak, though in their ranks are reported from various places in the region.

At Red Stone 200 strikers returned to work this morning. The men are diligent and the strike of the Scotchmen continues. Deputies are being paid off and discharged to-day.

A small riot occurred at the Valley works last night. About 100 Police started out to raid the house of men who had returned to work.

Dan Shoup and George W. Potterfield were handled very roughly and promised not to work any more. Shoup to-day swore out warrants against his assailants.

SCOTTSDALE, Pa., May 21. Every thing today points to an arming of the great coke strike. The strikers are weak, though in their ranks are reported from various places in the region.

At Red Stone 200 strikers returned to work this morning. The men are diligent and the strike of the Scotchmen continues. Deputies are being paid off and discharged to-day.

A small riot occurred at the Valley works last night. About 100 Police started out to raid the house of men who had returned to work.

Dan Shoup and George W. Potterfield were handled very roughly and promised not to work any more. Shoup to-day swore out warrants against his assailants.

SCOTTSDALE, Pa., May 21. Every thing today points to an arming of the great coke strike. The strikers are weak, though in their ranks are reported from various places in the region.

At Red Stone 200 strikers returned to work this morning. The men are diligent and the strike of the Scotchmen continues. Deputies are being paid off and discharged to-day.

A small riot occurred at the Valley works last night. About 100 Police started out to raid the house of men who had returned to work.

Dan Shoup and George W. Potterfield were handled very roughly and promised not to work any more. Shoup to-day swore out warrants against his assailants.

SCOTTSDALE, Pa., May 21. Every thing today points to an arming of the great coke strike. The strikers are weak, though in their ranks are reported from various places in the region.

At Red Stone 200 strikers returned to work this morning. The men are diligent and the strike of the Scotchmen continues. Deputies are being paid off and discharged to-day.

A small riot occurred at the Valley works last night. About 100 Police started out to raid the house of men who had returned to work.

Dan Shoup and George W. Potterfield were handled very roughly and promised not to work any more. Shoup to-day swore out warrants against his assailants.

SCOTTSDALE, Pa., May 21. Every thing today points to an arming of the great coke strike. The strikers are weak, though in their ranks are reported from various places in the region.

At Red Stone 200 strikers returned to work this morning. The men are diligent and the strike of the Scotchmen continues. Deputies are being paid off and discharged to-day.

A small riot occurred at the Valley works last night. About 100 Police started out to raid the house of men who had returned to work.

Dan Shoup and George W. Potterfield were handled very roughly and promised not to work any more. Shoup to-day swore out warrants against his assailants.

SCOTTSDALE, Pa., May 21. Every thing today points to an arming of the great coke strike. The strikers are weak, though in their ranks are reported from various places in the region.

At Red Stone 200 strikers returned to work this morning. The men are diligent and the strike of the Scotchmen continues. Deputies are being paid off and discharged to-day.

A small riot occurred at the Valley works last night. About 100 Police started out to raid the house of men who had returned to work.

Dan Shoup and George W. Potterfield were handled very roughly and promised not to work any more. Shoup to-day swore out warrants against his assailants.

SCOTTSDALE, Pa., May 21. Every thing today points to an arming of the great coke strike. The strikers are weak, though in their ranks are reported from various places in the region.

At Red Stone 200 strikers returned to work this morning. The men are diligent and the strike of the Scotchmen continues. Deputies are being paid off and discharged to-day.

A small riot occurred at the Valley works last night. About 100 Police started out to raid the house of men who had returned to work.

Dan Shoup and George W. Potterfield were handled very roughly and promised not to work any more. Shoup to-day swore out warrants against his assailants.

SCOTTSDALE, Pa., May 21. Every thing today points to an arming of the great coke strike. The strikers are weak, though in their ranks are reported from various places in the region.

At Red Stone 200 strikers returned to work this morning. The men are diligent and the strike of the Scotchmen continues. Deputies are being paid off and discharged to-day.

A small riot occurred at the Valley works last night. About 100 Police started out to raid the house of men who had returned to work.

Dan Shoup and George W. Potterfield were handled very roughly and promised not to work any more. Shoup to-day swore out warrants against his assailants.

SCOTTSDALE, Pa., May 21. Every thing today points to an arming of the great coke strike. The strikers are weak, though in their ranks are reported from various places in the region.

At Red Stone 200 strikers returned to work this morning. The men are diligent and the strike of the Scotchmen continues. Deputies are being paid off and discharged to-day.

A small riot occurred at the Valley works last night. About 100 Police started out to raid the house of men who had returned to work.

Dan Shoup and George W. Potterfield were handled very roughly and promised not to work any more. Shoup to-day swore out warrants against his assailants.

SCOTTSDALE, Pa., May 21. Every thing today points to an arming of the great coke strike. The strikers are weak, though in their ranks are reported from various places in the region.

At Red Stone 200 strikers returned to work this morning. The men are diligent and the strike of the Scotchmen continues. Deputies are being paid off and discharged to-day.

